

The $3,100 insurance bill

Source: Globe and Mail

July 4, 2012

The best of the web on money, markets and all things financial, as chosen daily by Globe and Mail personal finance columnist Rob Carrick.

Insureye.com, a website offers quotes to people seeking insurance coverage, has created an infographic showing that Canadians spend an average of $3,100 on insurance per year.

Continued on the next page...

READY FOR THAT DREAM VACATION?

$3100 is enough for 3 plane tickets (round trip) to Europe

OR ARE YOU IN THE MOOD FOR SOMETHING TROPICAL?

$3100 can get you 2 weeks at an all inclusive, 5 star hotel in the Caribbean

WHAT COULD YOU GET WITH $3100?

Insurance costs are no small expense. Did you know that insurance quotes for the same person can vary up to 200%?

insureYE helps you identify savings on home, auto, and life insurance so you can spend your hard earned cash the way you want; it's the smart online way to save on insurance.

insureYE
insureye.com

Created by Kristine Gal for insureye.com

Source: <http://www.theglobeandmail.com/globe-investor/personal-finance/mortgages/rob-carricks-reader-how-to-make-money-while-housing-burns/article4387948/>

Full resolution infographic is available at https://insureye.com/news_and_insights/view/how-much-do-canadians-really-spend-on-insurance